

27 October 2021 – PRESS RELEASE

TWO MORE LA FRANÇAISE AM CREDIT FUNDS AWARDED WITH THE FRENCH SRI LABEL

La Française AM is pleased to announce that two additional credit funds have been awarded the prestigious French SRI (Socially Responsible Investment) Label, which is supported by public authorities and awarded by EY France, accredited as a certification body by COFRAC.

Paul Gurzal, Head of Credit at La Française AM, added “La Française AM can now offer its investors a complete range of eleven SRI-labelled funds, illustrating our advance in sustainable investment strategies, particularly low-carbon strategies developed in credit, equities and sovereign debt. Six of La Française AM's credit funds have been labelled and are jointly representative of our core areas of expertise, namely: subordinated debt, fixed maturity funds and our low carbon investment strategy.”

- La Française Rendement Global 2028, classified "Article 8" under the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, seeks to outperform (net of fees and over the recommended investment period of nine years until 31 December 2028) the return on French government bonds denominated in EUR maturing in 2028 by investing in a portfolio of issuers that have been screened in advance based on Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) criteria.
- La Française Global Coco, classified "Article 8" under the Sustainable Finance Disclosure Regulation, seeks to outperform its benchmark, the ICE BofA Merrill Lynch Contingent Capital EUR Hedged Total Return Index over a recommended investment horizon of more than five years by gaining exposure to subordinated debt securities screened according to ESG investment criteria.
